EFAA is now pleased to publish guidance to help SMPs fulfil this role.

The guide offers suggestions on how SMPs can best respond to the rapid emergence of sustainability reporting. The guide explains how the landscape is fast evolving and how significant new reporting requirements, and the limited time to get ready for them, demand that SMPs and SMEs prepare now for their implementation. The guide includes useful tips on how SMPs can get ready to prepare sustainability reports for their SME clients.

The guide is also available in French, German and Romanian.
