

South African Revenue Service

Dear Employer,

PAYE PENALTIES: ADMIN PENALTIES - REQUEST FOR REMISSION, OBJECTION OR APPEAL PROCESS.

In 2021, SARS implemented administrative penalties on the late or non-submission of EMP501 Employer Reconciliation Declarations.

To dispute these administrative penalties, Employers were requested to use the manual ADR1 for objections and the ADR2 for appeals. This was as a result of the electronic dispute process not being available on eFiling in respect of the late payment and administrative penalties levied.

In an effort to improve its service offering SARS will, as of 23 April 2022, allow for taxpayers to request remission and dispute their PAYE administrative and late payment penalties on the existing dispute process on eFiling. SARS will, therefore, no longer accept manually filed PAYE disputes and remission requests as from 23 April 2022.

Sincerely,

THE SOUTH AFRICAN REVENUE SERVICE

April 2022

Please do not reply to this email. Replies to this message will be sent to an unmonitored mailbox. If you have any questions, visit the SARS website on www.sars.gov.za.

Legal disclaimer:

This email is intended solely for the use of the individual or entity to who it is addressed. If you have received this email in error, please delete the email from your system. If you are not the intended recipient you are notified that disclosing, copying, distributing or taking any action in reliance on the contents of this information is strictly prohibited